

Updated Wyatt Bio

CBF Internationals Team

Advocates for Internationals Research Triangle, NC

Kim and Marc Wyatt have been Cooperative Baptist Fellowship Global Missions Field Personnel since 1996, serving first in Thailand, then Canada and most recently to Raleigh, NC. The Wyatt's have been married for 34 years and have two children, Rebecca, 27 (married, Graduate of Meredith College and serves as a Social Worker in Tallahassee) and Jon Marc, 24 (Graduate of Gardner Webb University and serves with Passport Camps in Birmingham, Alabama).

The Wyatt's are graduates of Wingate University. Kim later received her Master of Education from Virginia Commonwealth University. Marc received his Master of Divinity from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Kim and Marc originally arrived in Canada to assist with the start-up of Matthew House a new Refugee Resettlement Ministry in Canada's largest city, Toronto. This later led to engaging the start-ups of 8 Matthew Houses and other newcomer ministries across Ontario and Quebec.

July 2014 Global Missions relocated the Wyatt's to the Research Triangle, an eight-county region with a population of approximately 2 million surrounding North Carolina's capital city, Raleigh. In 2015 the Wyatt's launched Welcome House modeled after their work in Canada. There are 8 Welcome Houses and 3 apartments that form the Welcome House Community Network which stretches from Wilmington, NC to Knoxville, Tennessee.

The Wyatt's resource and mobilize churches as they discover their international neighbors and share the Gospel in culturally appropriate ways. In this ever-changing day of global migration, the new 'foreign mission field' just might be your own hometown. From their 'Jerusalem' to the 'utter most parts of the world' and back, the Wyatt's have circled the globe as CBF Field Personnel to now be on mission in their own home state.

The Wyatt's seek to empower the Kingdom efforts of churches, mission organizations and individuals reaching out to refugees, immigrants (documented and otherwise), international students, visiting scholars and their family and those unfortunately caught in modern day slavery – the trafficked.

Their heart's desire is for the nations whom God has brought from the ends of the earth to our hometowns to be welcomed by his church and discover the gift of salvation through Jesus Christ.

To contact the Wyatt's call 910-632-4774 or wyatt@cbf.net