ELECTION DAY

A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

The presidential election is now less than three weeks away (thank goodness).

I wish everyone would have read a book by Andy Stanley entitled "Not in It to Win It." He writes, " If we want to make America great, we should follow the example of those first century Christians in Turkey.

We should gather every week and rededicate ourselves to our Savior and to one another.

We should take an oath to be model citizens. Model employees and employers. Faithful husbands and wives. In the words of the Apostle Paul, we should live lives that earn the respect of outsiders.

We should love one another the way God through Jesus Christ loved us. And if we run out of ideas, we should go look for some feet to wash.

And remember, second century Christians didn't have a Bible. Which means we twenty first Christians don't have any excuses."

I would vote for that platform and can only imagine what a different world we would know. It begins with each of us.

Brave Journey,
Bill
