A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

Some of the most special times in the life of CVBC happen from 6:30-7:15 on Wednesday night. At that time we pray for others and engage in Bible study through sharing with each other. If you have not experienced how special that is, I invite you to come. I often say that going from Sunday to Sunday is too long to not see my church family.

For instance, in a world in which we are bombarded with bad news at every turn, I invite you to pause what you are doing and consider these ancient words that speak to our story these days. They are from Psalm 91 and we will consider them this Wednesday night.

Because you have made the Lord your refuge, that Most High your dwelling place, no evil shall befall you, no scourge come near your tent. For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways. On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone. You will tread on the lion and the adder; the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot. Those who love me, I will deliver; I will protect those who know my name. When they call to me, I will answer them; I will be with them in trouble; I will rescue them and honor them. With long life I will satisfy them and show them my salvation. (Psalm 91:9-16)

I hope to see you Wednesday night. Lets share this good news together.

Brave Journey,
Bill
