A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

1993. Jurassic Park was the number one movie. Bill Clinton was inaugurated as President. The cost of gas was $1.16/gallon. UNC defeated Michigan for the NCAA basketball championship.

But most important of all---a young lady named Peggy Utley began her ministry as secretary/wonder woman/nerve center of Crabtree Valley Baptist Church!!!

Imagine all the changes Peggy has experienced. The ministers that have come and gone. The use of computers. The greeting of people whose first experience of the church was her. All the ways she kept the church running. The difference she has made.

Well done, good and faithful servant. And I hope everyone will come out and give her the celebration she deserves this Saturday, May 2, from 2-4 pm. We could not be more grateful.

Brave Journey,
Bill

OTHER:

Sonshine Person of the Week

The week of June 4, Cheryl Walker will be traveling to Guatemala with JET (Jesus and Education Transforms) school. This ministry seeks to help the people and children of the area. One of the events they will sponsor is a graduation party. For those who like to thrift shop – she is collecting long modest prom dresses (sizes 10+) and costume jewelry. These items are for a banquet that will be held for the graduating class of the school. Cheryl will need these turned in by Sunday, May 31.

HYGIENE KITS FOR CHURCH WORLD SERVICES DISASTER RELIEF

Thank you to all those who made kits or donated money to have kits made. Our goal was 200 kits, and we collected 315!

ATTENTION!!

There will not be a Wednesday Night Prayer and Bible study for the month of May.
